First Delegates For Rainbow Meet Come Wednesday

Visitors For State Convention Will Start Invasion Of City Late Tomorrow

CONVENTION TO OPEN THURSDAY

Wednesday will find the advance guard of the Pennsylvania Grand Assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, arriving in the city for their great three-day convention, which will not officially open, however, until Thursday afternoon. Headquarters for the convention will be in The Castleton and all sessions will be in the Cathedral.

Mrs. Charles E. Allen, supreme deputy, announced today that all plans for the convention have been completed, and that a wonderful program has been arranged for the three-day meeting by Mrs. Lois Sartwell of Ellwood City, general chairman, and her various committees from the assemblies in the local district.

Miss Anne Sartwell of Ellwood City Assembly, who is the grand worthy advisor, will preside at the various sessions. It is expected that 1,000 girls between the ages of 13 and 20, among the outstanding young womanhood of the state, will be here for this meeting. Most of them will stay here during the three days of the convention, but a number from immediately surrounding places, such as Sharon, Beaver Falls, Ellwood City, Mercer and Butler will commute daily from their homes by bus.

Local motorists are making it extremely difficult for passengers to board or alight from city buses by parking cars directly in front of bus stops. Perhaps brightening up of the signs marking the stops would help so that motorists would notice them more readily. The practice is particularly bad in the residential sections.

Local church buildings are looking the finest in many years. Almost every church in the downtown section and other areas of the city have had some outdoor work done on them in the past few (Continued on Page Two)

Thousands Expected At County Catholic Outing On Wednesday

Wednesday will be Lawrence county's Catholic Day.

From early morning when registration gets under way, Catholics throughout the district will trek to Cascade Park. And when the last fireworks comet flickers away, and another Catholic Day is ended, it is expected that at least 40,000 Catholics will have participated in this year's event.

All day features are scheduled from early morning at Cascade Park. Remembering only too well of last year's persistent downpour, fingers are being crossed for a little cooperation from Mr. Weatherman this year.

With each year, outings usually improve. Such is the case of the Catholic Day. Last year the event proved highly successful in spite of the rain. This year, the committee and officers have spared little effort in making this day one to remember.

As for the kiddies, they will enjoy a field day, what with all the free rides, ice cream, pop and hot dogs. Adults will enjoy the band concert which will be presented; dancing to the popular tunes of a local orchestra is scheduled to be an evening pastime. The sports program will be enjoyed in early afternoon.

No Early Discussion Of Sharing Atomic Secrets

By TOM AGOSTON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

FRANKFURT, Germany, Aug. 2.—(INS)—U. S. Army Chief of Staff Gen. Omar N. Bradley indicated today that the sharing of atomic secrets with Britain may be discussed on a military level sometime in the future—but there have not been any such talks as yet.

Bradley, in Europe with the Joint Chiefs of Staff to weld North Atlantic Pact defenses in secret talks, said no such atomic discussions are planned in the "near" future, then added:

"We have not reached that stage yet."

Bradley declined to be drawn out further on the controversial question.

When he first landed in Europe he repeated what he had told Congress—that the United States is allotted the strategic bombing tasks, including "delivery of the atom bomb," in the North Atlantic defense line-up.

Ban Rescinded On Kirsten Flagstad

Will Sing This Fall In San Francisco's War Memorial Opera House

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.—(INS)—Kirsten Flagstad, foremost Wagnerian soprano of her day, has surmounted by dint of her pox office appeal the stormiest crisis of her career.

She will sing this fall in San Francisco's stately War Memorial Opera House.

That was decided by the margin of one ballot last night when the Opera House board of trustees voted 6 to 5 to rescind their ban against the Norwegian prima donna.

The directors of the San Francisco Opera Association accordingly announced that the 1949 grand opera season will go on, as originally scheduled.

Charges Made

Veterans groups charged that the operatic star, whose voice has thrilled millions, betrayed her country and the cause of the democracies when in 1941 she returned to German-occupied Norway to be with her sick husband. They accused her of lending her superb voice and artistic reputation to the service of the nazis.

The struggle was joined by Mme. Flagstad's defenders who insisted that she never sang for the nazis nor abetted them in any other way, notwithstanding the fact that her husband, who died after the war, was an avowed Quisling. In flying to her husband, they argued, the singer was doing only what any loyal wife would do in similar circumstances.

Find Wheeling Has No Sunday Beer Restriction

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 2.—(INS)—Red-faced city council members in Wheeling had no explanation to offer today for an oversight which went undetected 12 years.

A hawk-eyed lawyer, Gilbert Bachmann, astounded councilmen and municipal court yesterday when he proved that Wheeling doesn't have any regulation to curb the sale of beer on Sundays.

In defending his client, Mike Liapakis, a bartender, Bachmann brought out that a 1936 ordinance established 7 a. m. to midnight week day hours for the sale of beer. Sunday hours were 1 p. m. to midnight.

But a superseding ordinance in 1937 somehow overlooked the Sunday restriction.

Municipal court has been fixing violators for 12 years.

'Five Percenter' Probe Expansion Is Being Urged

Activities Of Some High-Ranking Political Figures May Be Aired

SOME TIPS GIVEN ON NEW NAMES

By CHARLES B. SEIB
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Senate "five percenter" investigators today are mulling over suggestions by John Maragon that they look into activities of some high-ranking political figures.

The one-time familiar figure at the White House told an impromptu news conference that he urged an investigation of Henry F. Grady, American ambassador to Greece, and George Killian, former Democratic national treasurer.

Maragon specifically suggested a probe of the 1941 reorganization of the Dollar Steamship Lines. Grady was named president of the line under a Maritime commission reorganization in 1941 and was succeeded by Killian in 1947.

Friend Of Vaughan

Maragon, a familiar figure on Capitol Hill for many years, is a friend of Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan, President Truman's military aide.

He has been a Washington representative for several firms. A Senate subcommittee investigating the alleged use of influence in the procurement of government contracts has been taking extended testimony from Maragon.

Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.), a committee member, told reporters that (Continued on Page Two)

Clark, McGrath Nominations Sent To Senate

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—President Truman today formally nominated Attorney General Tom C. Clark to be an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court and Sen. J. Howard McGrath to succeed Clark in the cabinet post.

Mr. Truman sent the nominations of Clark and McGrath to the Senate, where leaders of both parties have predicted prompt confirmation, perhaps without even a show of opposition.

Clark was nominated to fill the supreme court vacancy created by the death of Associate Justice Frank Murphy.

McGrath will resign as Senator from Rhode Island and chairman of the Democratic National Committee as soon as his nomination to the attorney generalship is confirmed.

Housing Expediter

Has Conference

With Senate Probers

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—Housing Expediter Tighe Woods conferred for one and a half hours today with Senate investigators who are probing Washington's influence-selling "five percenter."

Woods told reporters after the closed meeting that both James V. Hunt, who activities set off the inquiry, and John Maragon, White House intimate who also has been questioned at length, were discussed.

The housing expediter added that he told the investigators that Hunt was his "very good friend," but that he did not know Maragon, a friend of White House aid Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan.

Woods reported that William Rogers, chief counsel of the investigating committee, was especially interested in approval of construction at two race tracks shortly after the war when there was a shortage of materials.

Picket McCloy

Headquarters, But

McCloy's Not There

FRANKFURT, Aug. 2.—(INS)—Fifty members of the "victims of Fascism," reputed pro-Communist group, picketed the Frankfurt headquarters of John J. McCloy today—but he was not there.

McCloy, U. S. high commissioner-designate for Germany, left for a two-week trip to Washington.

It was the first time the headquarters building was picketed, and U. S. military police did not interfere.

Some 200 sympathizers supported the pickets, who demanded pensions and sick benefits, and sought to present a petition to the new military Governor McCloy.

Chicago Street Car Hit By Lightning

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—(INS)—Four persons escaped injury last night when lightning struck a street car on which they were riding and set it afire causing an estimated $20,000 damage.

Officials said the street car was burned down to the trucks and Chief Arthur Driscoll of the 19th battalion said the two passengers and crewmen were "very lucky to get out alive."

Heat from the flames melted the coin collection box and fused other metal parts of the car.

The passengers escaped through a center exit door.

Gen. Omar Bradley Reviews Troops Now In Germany

Declares That "U. S. Troops Are Ready For Any Emergency," After Review

By TOM AGOSTON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

GRAEFENWOEHR, Germany, Aug. 2.—Gen. Omar N. Bradley of the U. S. joint chiefs of staff who are welding North Atlantic pact defenses in secret European talks, declared today that "U. S. troops are ready for any emergency."

Bradley, U. S. army chief of staff, and the others reviewed American servicemen at the former Nazi training ground of Grafenwoehr and then told a news conference the troops are "in excellent condition."

Asked whether the Atlantic pact would supersede the western union, Gen. Bradley said "we are studying that now."

U. S. air force chief of staff Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg told newsmen "we do not expect to decrease air force personnel or planes in Germany or England."

Will Replace Planes

Vandenberg added that all fighter planes in Germany will be replaced by jets.

The air force leader was asked about the duration of the occupation but answered "this is a political question and I am no politician."

Earlier Bradley, Vandenberg and Adm. Louis Denfeld, naval chief of operations, took the salute of soldiers (Continued on Page Two)

White House To Be Retained

STRUCTURE TO BE FULLY REPAIRED

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—A special commission today rejected a suggestion that the historic but crumbling White House be replaced with a new and air-cooled executive mansion of gleaming marble.

The commission voted unanimously that the White House will retain its traditional form as completely as possible, with all modern engineering and architectural skills combined toward that end.

Sen. McKellar (D-Tenn., chair- (Continued on Page Two)

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Senator J. Howard McGrath (D-R. I.) smiled broadly as he left the White House Monday afternoon following President Truman's announcement that McGrath had accepted post of Attorney General replacing Tom C. Clark who has been named to the Supreme Court Bench. McGrath announced he will resign from his post as chairman of the Democratic National Committee when the Senate confirms his new appointment.

Report Fighting

200 Miles North

Of Canton Today

CANTON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—Chinese communist troops were reported today fighting at Suichuan, about 200 miles north of the nationalist capital of Canton.

Red units were said to have bypassed the Hunan provincial capital of Changsha to strike at Suichuan.

Another communist thrust was understood to be in progress from Lienhua in Kiangsi province, toward Yunghsin, near the junction of Kiangsi and two other southern provinces—Kwangsi and Kwangtung.

Military observers foresaw a possibility that communist troops would soon be in all three provinces in force.

Sleep Walker Ends Trip In Hospital

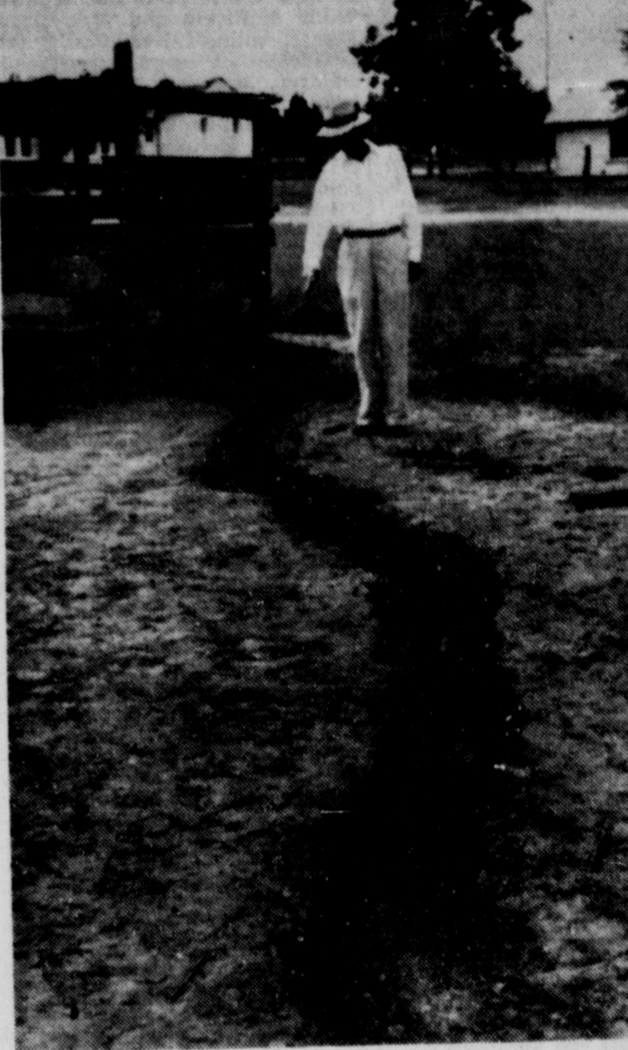

MEADVILLE, Pa., Aug. 2.—(INS)—Richard Knapp, 14-year-old Cambridge Springs, Pa., schoolboy was recuperating today from a fractured right arm, possible fractured right shoulder and cuts and bruises because he had mistaken a window for a door.

At the Meadville hospital today the youth explained he has been "a sleep-walker all my life."

He went to sleep in the second floor bedroom of his brother's house in Meadville and was found in bed yesterday morning dazed and blood-spattered.

Richard couldn't explain how he returned to bed after probably going through a window instead of a door.

Wants American As Supreme Commander Of Western Defense

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—A house Republican proposed today that an American be named supreme commander of any unified defense council set up to direct President Truman's program to rearm friendly powers.

Rep. Javits (R-N.Y.) made this suggestion on the grounds that the United States is to supply the bulk of military armament needed to carry out the one billion, 450 million dollar proposal. He said:

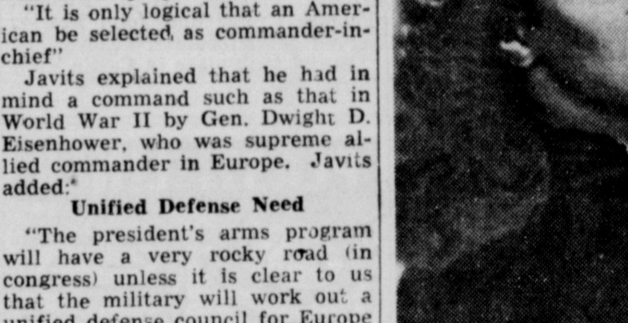

"It is only logical that an American be selected as commander-in-chief."

Javits explained that he had in mind a command such as that in World War II by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, who was supreme allied commander in Europe. Javits added:

Committee Fails

To Break Deadlock

On Education Aid

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—The house labor committee failed in four attempts today to break its deadlock over the controversial issue of federal aid to education.

The committee meeting broke up in full disagreement after four motions offered at the session were defeated.

The house group's failure to reach agreement indicated that no aid to education bill will be enacted at this session of congress.

'Miss New York' Without Crown

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—(INS)—A queen without a crown—that's 20-year-old Mary Collins who until yesterday was "Miss New York" and in the running for the "Miss America" title.

Miss Collins, a stately brunette from Nederland, Texas, was disqualified by rules of the Miss America contest that no aspirant for the beauty crown may be under contract to anyone.

Miss Collins before becoming "Miss New York" signed up with a model agency and it declined to give up the contract. The "Miss New York" title and over $500 in prizes then went to runner-up Loreen Osgood, 22.

Harriman Tells Congress Speed Needed On Aid

Optimistic That Sustained Peace Is Within Reach Of Europe, He Says

VALUABLE TIME MUST NOT BE LOST (BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—W. Averell Harriman told Congress today that President Truman's arms-for-friends program would develop a far stronger military alliance than Russia can muster and would help to insure world peace.

Harriman, roving ambassador for the Marshall Plan, urged the House Foreign Affairs Committee to speedily approve the one billion, 450 million dollar military assistance program.

Hopeful Of Peace

He declared that he had "never been as optimistic as I am today" that the maintenance of peace is within reach in Europe, "provided we carry out vigorously the policies and programs in which we are engaged."

These included, he said, the military assistance program. Harriman added:

"We face forces determined and persistent, which must be met with equal determination and perseverance. We cannot relax because of early successes. The task is not easy and requires continuing present day sacrifices."

Stronger Than Russia

Harriman noted that both in population and the skill and productivity of their workmen, the European members of the Atlantic Pact are stronger than Russia and her satellites.

Industrial potential he exemplified by steel. He said the European participants of the pact have an annual capacity of about 40 million tons in addition to the United States capacity of 90 million tons.

Harriman estimated that Russia and her satellites together have probably a production of less than 30 million tons a year. He said:

Withstand Aggression

"It does not seem unreasonable to me to believe that the free countries of Europe can develop over a period of time defensive military forces which, joined together, through the Atlantic Pact, with our part therein, will be able to withstand aggression."

"The contribution of the European military establishments when developed, will add immeasurably to our security and affect the size of our own security forces that we must maintain in the future."

Harriman also urged speedy action by Congress on the arms program. He said:

Lose Valuable Time

"If this program is not adopted valuable time will be lost."

"It will cost more in the long run and put off the day when we can count on their (European nations) contribution to our security."

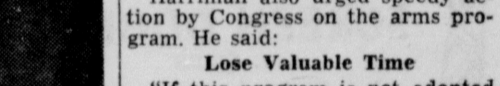

Harriman said the program would strengthen the confidence of western European nations in the United States. He added:

"If we turn aside today or put off action on the proposed assistance, doubts may well arise again. The voices of the subversive elements, the appeasers—those who would 'neutralize'—would rise again and have an effect on the confidence and determination which now exists."

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

The American joint chiefs of staff are studying Atlantic pact defenses on the spot in Europe today, backed by two specific U. S. warnings to Russia against any "get rich quick" aggression.

Army Chief of Staff Gen. Omar N. Bradley declared the U. S. is entrained with "delivering the atomic bomb" if Russia should strike.

Britain meanwhile is recruiting and training anti-atomic air raid wardens just in case Russia has or will have an atomic bomb of her own.

Secretary of State Acheson told congress Thursday that Russia has "the largest peacetime military force in history." He added that a possible Soviet attack against the west could not be ruled out.

Acheson's warning was that Russia can expect "total war" and complete resistance from all 12 Atlantic pact powers if she dares to attack.

How Strong Is Russia?
How strong is Russia? No westerner knows—but rough estimates can be made.

Her armed forces are believed to total about four million persons, with the red army being the core and numbering about two and a half million men.

Half of the red army is made up of rifle divisions; perhaps a fourth is armored; the remainder is artillery and cavalry. Mobilization could produce another million men within a month.

Before the second world war Russia could muster more than 20 million men and women on the basis of over-age groups. After suffering millions of casualties it is estimated Russia ended the war with 10 1/2 millions mobilized.

Demobilization reduced this number to four million men parceled out among the various services.

The army remains the cream of the Russian striking force, and it is excellently armed. It will be even better within a few years.

Russian tanks have been recognized by western military men as among the finest, even the best in some categories.

Red Navy Is Weak
The red navy is weak compared to Anglo-American standards, but it does have perhaps 20 submarines already, including the German-type Schnorkel which does not have to surface for long periods.

Soviet planes may be nearing the 15,000 mark, but many are obsolete wartime types and inferior to western planes.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

VOLUNTEER WORK DONE BY PARENTS
The thousands of men and women who give voluntary services to groups of youths, as in Scouts, Cubs, Brownies, Bluebirds, Camp Fire Girls, groups of K. of C. and the various Y's and churches, not only give much to the children and youths served but also gain much for themselves personally. Parents who serve in such capacities usually become better parents.

Although a parent may occasionally find it difficult to do best with a group containing his or her own child, the parent often can, on this account, do better. Frequently the experience further parent-child companionship. The parent learns much from his own child that is useful in dealing with the group.

Also the parent learns much from the group to further understanding of his or her own child. Often the experience favors mutual respect and continued regular attendance of the leader's own child. Indeed, many a parent engages in such voluntary service with the possible value to his or her own offspring in mind. A mother writes:

Adult Member
"I want to tell you about my part as an adult member of the Camp Fire Girls organization. I am the leader of 14 girls of junior high age. I have had these girls since they were nine years old. Blue Birds."

"We always hear about the good the organization does for the girls but we never hear of what it does to the adults. It certainly has made a much more understanding person of me. I know my own four daughters better through waiting on them. I trust that because we have learned after all that they are quite normal for their respective ages. My family practically live Camp Fire and we all cooperate to get the most from it in our home, on our trips and through the church and the school."

"When I took this group I knew nothing of the work. I gave my daughter a dollar to join and let her go just because she wished to belong (I even thought the leaders were paid for their time). When their leader moved away I looked into it and offered my services although I felt very incapable."

Deeply Engrossed
"Now I am so deeply engrossed in Camp Fire I wouldn't leave it for fear I would miss the girls more than they would miss me. We have four daughters, six months, six years, nine years and 12 years, so Camp Fire will be with my family for a long while."

"I knew you and your wife are interested in Camp Fire and I couldn't resist telling you about my part in this great work, too. All we need is adults to volunteer, the girls are always there waiting. I trust that many a mother reading this mother's letter will be inspired thereby to become a leader of one such group. Perhaps most of the character building organizations could be doubled, tripled, or quadrupled if enough parents sensed the value of their own children to be derived from active, faithful membership in one. To them, and the value moreover, to themselves personally from voluntary service to such a group. Nor should be overlooked the generous services and personal gain in this direction by unmarried men and women."

Administrative officials wonder now whether the mine union chief may not revise his strategy. He doesn't like to trail along after Murray and the 60-day steel truce may prompt Lewis to go into action.

Earlier, there had been the possibility of a steel strike which would have taken the punch out of any coal strike for a new contract. It still may be too soon for a mine shutdown to have much effect because of huge stockpiles of coal.

The Russians are concentrating on jet fighters and bombers, though Britain sold them some jet engines. In the recent Moscow aviation day ceremony observers were impressed by the speed of the jet planes.

The Russians also are equipped with radar, but are considered behind the west in this field. Most western officials do not believe they have yet produced an atomic bomb, but will eventually.

Industrially, Russia also is inferior to the west, especially the vast American production machine which proved itself during the war.

Like other countries, Russia's war potential is based on three industries—coal, steel and oil.

The Soviet coal output before the war was 170 million tons a year—much less than that of Britain which has only a fourth of Russia's population.

Still Handicapped
The Germans wrecked the Don basin coal fields and the Russians still are handicapped. Even so, it is believed the institution of the various five-year plans has enabled the Russians to exceed the pre-war output.

Steel production in 1947 was reported at 17 million tons, but even the targets set by Premier Stalin for 1950 do not reach the present American production level.

By that year, if all goes well, Russia might be producing 80 per cent of American steel and coal output, but only a fourth as much oil.

Transport also is a bad Russian weakness.

This appraisal of Russian industrial strength makes it seem highly unlikely that Moscow will resort to war, even if she gets full aid from the satellite industrial nations.

The western fear is that she might do so, however, in the hope of quick dividends in an unarmaged western Europe. That is the reason for the American warnings.

ABOUT FAME
He went to work from day to day. He taught his children conduct good.

And if disaster came their way He helped his neighbors when he could. He kept a little garden trim, But fame no notice took of him. He had one suit he called his best.

'Twas kept aside for special wear. That others were more richly dressed. No one who knew him seemed to care.

With friends he liked to sit and chat. But fame is blind to things like that.

He shared the lesser joys of life: Delighted in his birthday cake; Bought little trinkets for his wife; A speech he never rose to make. A simple man he was and kind, But more than that fame wants to find.

Yet more than that can be possessed. And happiness not be allowed. Sometimes the little home is blessed. With peace denied to mansions proud.

The true success devotion makes Is that which fame for granted takes. (Copyright, 1949, Edgar A. Guest)

The "Copper" Head

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Tito Needs Steel Mill From U. S.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—To enable Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia to go on standing up to the Soviet Union is a major objective of the United States and Great Britain in Eastern Europe. So long as Tito is off the Communist reservation and his war with the Cominform is growing hotter—Russia is hampered in her plans to consolidate the military and economic resources of the Soviet sphere. Obvious, the chances for peace are thereby increased.

This policy has been the source of a closely guarded controversy at the highest level here in Washington. It came about as a result of Yugoslavia's application for a license to purchase a steel rolling mill in this country.

Shortly before he went on a brief visit to Yugoslavia, Ambassador Sava N. Kossanovich was told that the necessary export license would be issued. That was based on the conviction of experts in both the state and commerce departments that it was a "calculated risk" to the interest of peace.

Engineers Were In Belgrade
Steel engineers of the New York firm of H. A. Brassett were already in Belgrade making a survey and British engineers are also at work. While terms of payment had not been worked out, the hope was that this could be negotiated on a basis of private trade since Yugoslavia is sending to this country increasing shipments of lead, copper and other minerals.

All this appears to have been premature, since in a late phase of the discussions Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson asserted himself.

Johnson is reported to have made the flat statement that the proposed mill would increase the steel capacity of Russia and the satellite by five percent. To those in the commerce department familiar with steel production this was a startling statement. Soviet Russia today can produce annually an estimated 17,000,000 metric tons and the satellites, exclusive of Yugoslavia, perhaps another 9,000,000 tons.

The export license sought by Yugoslavia calls for an expenditure of about $3,000,000 over-all. A mill of that size, as the experts figured it, would certainly not add five percent to the steel potential of Eastern Europe.

Other Startling Statements
Other startling statements in a different vein are attributed to Johnson. He is said to have threatened to carry the issue to the White House with stress on the political implications for 1952 of such a concession to an iron curtain country.

In skilled and lawyer-like fashion Acheson argued the case for strengthening Tito so that Yugoslavia can resist the tightening cord of economic blockade applied under Russian orders by all the satellites. While that blockade is causing some economic hardships, it has not seriously weakened the regime of Marshal Tito. It has, however, delayed the grandiose plans for industrialization Tito has outlined about.

This, it seems to me, is a question in which sentiment and emotion should enter as little as possible. If, as a purely practical matter, Tito can be sustained, then Russia's position in Europe is weakened. To deny Tito even this small lifeline will make the Kremlin rejoice.

To Send Mission
The International Bank is about to send a mission to Yugoslavia as the result of an application from Belgrade for a loan to develop mineral resources. But because of the way in which it is set up the bank must proceed slowly.

The controversy over the Yugoslav steel mill bears some resemblance to the question of whether this country is to share atomic information with Great Britain and Canada. Both are calculated risks. Both are risks proposed in the interest of ultimate peace and security in the world. In the end President Truman will probably have to decide whether Yugoslavia is to get a steel mill.

Those who oppose these risks—or, for that matter, any risk—seem often, whether they realize it or not, to be acting in the belief that war is the only way out. To accept that belief is, it seems to me, to deny that there is any hope left.

Even shorter than Phil Murray applied to the steel makers.

But Phurious Phil can now be said to have come of age as head of the CIO. "A band of sanctimonious professional racketeers" is a phrase in the tradition of the great founder.

In fact, like Shakespeare and Bacon, it is difficult at times to tell which is talking, Murray or Lewis.

Anyway, Tom Clark's nomination to the high court should be inspiration for any boy struggling with low marks.

Was it Harry Bridges who said "remember it isn't how you play the game that counts... it's whether you win or lose?"

WASHINGTON—Rep. Lodge (R) Mass.: "Russia has increased her (armed) forces 19 per cent in the last year. This was obviously not for a peaceful purpose."

"How I Broke The Bank"

(By HENRY McLEMORE)

ESTORIAL, Portugal, August 2.—If you have tears, prepare to shed them now, because this is a sad little article.

It has a title and a sub-title.

The title is, "How I Broke the Bank at the Estorial Casino." And the sub-title is, "Senhor, Can You Direct Me to the Nearest Morris Plan Bank?"

The Casino, drat it!, is only a five-minute walk from my hotel. I didn't want to go there, but I had read Temple Fielding's "New Travel Guide to Europe" in which he said that if you came to Lisbon without visiting the Casino you would regret it all your life.

Brother Fielding was close. What he should have said was that if you DO go there you'll regret it, etc., etc.

Invaded Super Monte Carlo
So I dressed up in my best bib and tucker and invaded this super Monte Carlo, where they slash your pocketbook at the entrance to see if you run with rich, red escudos, which is the currency of the country.

At home, when I enter a gaming room, I ordinarily buy penny chips, but I hadn't been in the Casino long before I was buying chips worth a dollar throw, and scattering them on the roulette tables as if I had an oil well in my right pants pocket and a letter of credit from Fort Knox in my watch pocket.

I looked over the numbers which run (as if you didn't know) from 0 to 36, and chose 21. Twenty-one has yet to come of age, much less vote. I even promised 21 a gold watch if it would come up, but it held back while such "teen-age" numbers as 15, 16, 19, and 14 made merry. The croupier wore out two of his little rakes raking in chips placed on 21. After three hours of raking in my chips even the croupier gave me a sympathetic smile, which is tantamount to getting sympathy from a crocodile in a dinner jacket.

Estorial Casino State Operated
The Estorial Casino, which is state operated, is the only place I have ever seen where a man can gamble on anything. There are rooms for bridge, chess, poker, Ping-pong and, I believe, hopscotch. Walk in and say you are an international hopscotch champion, and you'll get action. There is even a movie in the vast place, and I heard a fellow say he had been given 4 to 1 by an usher that he wouldn't like the movie that was showing. It was something which portrayed Lassie biting Gene Autry. He said he lost, too. Said he had played the price, not the movie.

No one ever leaves the Casino empty-handed, so to speak. It has what must be one of the most striking settings in the world. It is situated on a hill and, running down to the sea, for five city blocks, is a terraced garden with flowers, lagoons and great shade trees which hold arms to form a natural arch. To dine outside on the terrace (and dine as well as anywhere in the world) is almost worth the grief that the gaming tables bring to your heart.

I said "almost," mind you.

I trust that Pan American is kind to stowaways; that it doesn't drop blasted passengers into the deep—because I am due to leave for Africa tomorrow, and the only way I could produce a legitimate ticket would be to print one in my room tonight.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDIS

Have you got ulcers?
Or at least hypertension?
If not, I am afraid you'll never be a great man or woman.

If you want to be a celebrity, according to what I understand from a recent editorial in the Torrington, Conn., Register, you owe it to yourself to get yourself a set of ulcers or at least a case of hypertension.

You all know what ulcers are, of course. Hypertension is a bit difficult to explain. You may not even find it in your dictionary unless it is one of those great big ones than can bring on rupture if you use them too often.

Hypertension is what, in the days of my parents, people used to call cussedness, ornerness, crabbiness or several other home-made terms like these.

In those days, when hypertension occurred in children, a good spanking often brought a quick cure.

In adults, a few days of rest, a good heart-to-heart talk between husband and wife, or between boss and employee did a lot of good.

Nowadays when a kid has the ailment he is taken to a psychiatrist, who says the youngster is expressing himself and should not be discouraged from sassing his mother or father.

And adults go to Reno and get themselves a divorce.

But back to the Torrington Register editorial.

It quotes General Marshall as having said "Ulcers have had a strange effect upon the history of our times. I have had to contend with ulcers, among other things, the ulcers of Bedell Smith in Moscow and the ulcers of Bob Lovett and Dean Acheson in Washington."

Then the editorial writer goes on to say, "He might have mentioned his own retirement which was caused by another of the manifestations of hypertension."

The writer further quotes a Washington correspondent who, somehow, found that among those who suffer from ulcers or hypertension are Stalin, Bevin, Vishinsky, Warren Austin, Eisenhower, Acheson, Queuille, Molotov, de Gasperi, Gromyko, and General Clark.

"When the Big Four sat at a table in Paris, there was hardly an item on the menu that all four could eat or drink."

So you see if you ever want to be great you should really first of all get sick. (Unless the egg comes before the hen.)

You start with indigestion. Next comes hypertension. Finally ulcers. Eventually you'll get into "Who's Who."

Can you eat pickles with immunity?

Certain vehicles are required by law to come to a full stop before crossing over a railroad crossing. These include school buses, motor buses, taxicabs, loaded gasoline truck and also vehicles hauling bottled gas and vehicles transporting explosives. The operators of other vehicles should keep this law in mind while in the vicinity of railway crossings and be prepared to stop if any of the above type vehicles are in line of traffic ahead. Rear end collisions frequently result when such stops are unexpected.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

Arthur Korber's five-year-old daughter, Cathy, attended a birthday party where the food had been seasoned too strongly for her liking. Quite naturally, she remarked to her hostess, "This is awful!"

"It's very good. It's just a little different, you'll get to like it." "No," said Cathy, "I won't like it. It's just awful."

On the way home, the nurse explained, "When you're eating out dear, it's all right to say the food is good if you like it, but if you don't, just leave it on your plate and don't say anything."

The next Saturday, Cathy went visiting again. For lunch, she was served creamed chicken, which she loves, and peas, which she always has hated. She finished the chicken, tasted the peas, then looked at her nurse, and in her best Emily Post voice remarked, "These peas are delicious—but awful."

Those who oppose these risks—or, for that matter, any risk—seem often, whether they realize it or not, to be acting in the belief that war is the only way out. To accept that belief is, it seems to me, to deny that there is any hope left.

March Of Dimes Breaks Record In Year's Donations

But President Warns That Even This May Not Be Enough To Meet Costs

A record total of $25,728,000 was raised in the 1949 March of Dimes to continue the fight on polio, according to W. R. Hanna, chairman of the Lawrence County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The comparable figure for last year was $21,600,000.

Half of the sum raised after expenses will be used by the national headquarters to support its research, professional education and training programs, and to support supplement resources of its local chapters in epidemic emergencies. Chapters retain the other half to pay for care and treatment of polio patients and epidemic aid.

Mr. Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation, in a letter to the local chapter chairman said, "The need for funds to fight polio still remains extremely critical because of the extremely severe epidemics experienced in recent years."

"While it is impossible to predict at this time how heavy this year's case load will be, there is grave doubt that even the record sum raised in the 1949 March of Dimes will provide an adequate amount to carry on our full medical and research program in the current year."

Four New Castle Men Included In Naval Exercises

Four New Castle naval men are now taking part in what the navy calls its most extensive amphibious training operation which is being conducted at the U. S. Naval Amphibious Base, Little Creek, Va., and in nearby waters.

The Little Creek naval exercises are enabling the NROTC midshipmen to receive their amphibious training from men with wide experience in actual amphibious warfare. Many of the officers and men of the attack force are veterans of amphibious assault operations during World War II.

The men from New Castle include: Fred Gemmil, son of F. D. Gemmil of 220 Park avenue; Raymond Maher, son of Mrs. Thomas Maher of 105 Phillips place; William Jimerson, son of Mrs. Edythe Jimerson of R. D. 2, and Arthur Mielke, son of Mrs. Irene Mielke of R. D. 3.

Russia Is Facing Heavy Crop Losses

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—The government reports that Russia is threatened with unusually heavy crop losses this year because of poor harvesting conditions.

The Agriculture department has learned that heavy rains and cool weather severely crippled the Soviet grain harvest operations in July. The downpours also curbed the ripening of grains in the European part of the Union.

The department says there has been a "serious lag" in combine harvesting in a number of regions, and in others the simultaneous maturing of spring and winter grains has complicated harvesting. Weedy fields have also posed a serious problem for many crops and the department says that Russia's harvesting losses—which are traditionally high—may be even greater than usual this year.

The general crop outlook for the rest of Europe is reported "relatively favorable" despite dry, hot weather in the west. Bread grain output is estimated at about five per cent below last year and more than ten per cent below the 1935-39 average.

Berlin Airlift Cost United States Over 255 Million

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The Defense department announced that since the Berlin airlift began on June 26, 1948, it has cost the United States $255,468,500 and the lives of 31 Americans who were killed in crashes.

Rabies Has Been Almost Totally Stopped In State

HARRISBURG, Aug. 2.—(INS)—July produced only one case of rabies this year, the Agriculture department reported.

Secretary Miles Horst debunked the old myth that rabies may become widespread during July and August.

Only 16 officially recognized cases of rabies have been reported in the state from the beginning of the year, he said. In 1944, the state experienced its worst onslaught of rabies in history with 904 known cases, Horst said.

"This remarkable reduction of rabies in Pennsylvania is due largely to the splendid cooperation given the department by dog owners and local police who have kept dogs from running at large," Horst explained.

No rabid deaths have been reported so far this year, none last year, but in the three previous years two deaths each year were recorded, he said.

This year's 16 cases were found in 11 dogs, one cat, three cattle and one fox.

Almost $2,000,000 additional March of Dimes funds to step up research and professional education in the field of poliomyelitis have been allocated to more than a score of leading medical research laboratories and institutions throughout the nation, it was disclosed by W. R. Hanna, chairman of the Lawrence County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Russian Claim Is Rejected By United States

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—The United States today rejected as "utterly without foundation" charges by Russia that Italy's participation in the North Atlantic pact is a violation of its peace treaty.

The rejection was contained in a note delivered to the Soviet embassy this morning. The Russian protest was given the state department on July 19.

The Russian note had charged that the alliance would permit Italy to increase her armaments beyond the level provided for her own defense in the peace treaty.

In the U. S. reply, Secretary of State Acheson pointed out that he previously stated that "any contribution which Italy makes to the collective capacity for defense of the North Atlantic area must be within the military provisions of the Italian peace treaty."

Political Pundits Have Field Day As Senate Lights Fail

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—The temporary Senate Chamber in the old Supreme Court room of the capitol is bright with light again today.

But the lawmakers are still talking about a temporary failure of the electrical circuit which plunged the chamber into darkness and furnished political pundits a field day.

During the blackout, freshman Sen. Humphrey (D) Minn., said that he "thought for a minute the Republicans had taken over." He added:

"They always seem to be legislating in the dark."

GOP leader Wherry, Neb., replied:

"It was a warning from nature—a symbol of the dark cloud of confusion which enshrouds this (Democratic-led) Senate."

Satira Is Named As Correspondent

CLEVELAND, Aug. 2.—(INS)—Satira, exotic night club dancer and 1947 slayer of her married lover aboard a yacht in Havana harbor, has been named correspondent in a Cleveland maintenance suite.

The 24-year-old dancer from Toledo, O., otherwise known as Patricia Schmidt, was identified yesterday in a suit filed in Cuyahoga County common pleas court as the girl friend of Sebastian Salupo, 35-year-old Cleveland labor official.

Salupo's wife, Louise Ann, 34, charged in her suit that her husband "kept and maintained her" (Satira) at various and sundry places and suites and first class hotels in New Orleans, Detroit, Cleveland, St. Louis, New York, Chicago and presently Calumet City, Ill.

Mrs. Salupo further charged that Salupo and Satira spent last week-end together in Calumet City, where she was appearing.

In Calumet City, "Satira" denied the charges. She asserted:

"Why I hardly know him. I've only seen him twice, casually at a couple of parties in Cincinnati. I didn't know whether he was married or had any children.

"No, I don't know if his name is Sebastian or Alfred. I met him as 'Babe'."

AMERICA AT PLAY

VACATION! They've picked time and place, and they've planned and saved for months. Now they're off!

That's the American way—the way of free choice—so familiar we take it for granted. A man picks his job, leaves it freely for a better one. He chooses the town he'll work in, the house where he'll live. He saves or spends as he wishes, with only his income and his wife to dictate to him.

It's not that way everywhere. In some countries, the government puts a man in a city, a house, a job, with no choice in the matter. He can't quit, leave town or move around the corner without permission. If he gets a vacation, he is told where and when to go. The government runs everything, the people nothing.

That's what happens when a free people turn over their responsibilities to their government. They also turn over their freedom of choice. Socialism is the result. How does Socialism happen? Not overnight. It is woven slowly, a thread at a time, into the bonds of slavery. Little by little the government assumes powers other than governing—until it finally assumes all power.

In this country, the government has already entered the electric light and power business—and is aiming at medicine, steel, railroads, and other industries. That is how Socialism got its start in other countries. Talk to your friends and neighbors and see how they feel about this creeping Socialism that threatens your way of life.

Catastrophies Take 600 Lives During Six Month's Period

NEW YORK, N. Y., August 2.—About 600 persons were killed in catastrophes—accidents which take five or more lives—during the first six months of 1949 in the continental United States, according to the record maintained by Metropolitan Life Insurance Company statisticians. This is slightly lower than the toll for the same period of last year.

Fewer lives were lost in civilian aviation, water transportation, floods, explosions, and railroad and mine disasters. Scheduled domestic air transport service was entirely free of catastrophic accidents, whereas in the corresponding period of 1948 there were three such disasters claiming a total of 60 lives.

Fires, motor vehicle accidents, tornadoes, blizzards, and earthquakes claimed more victims this year than last. The most costly in lives was the midnight fire in the Effingham, Ill., hospital, which killed 75 persons, considerably more than any accident in 1948. Tornadoes in Arkansas and Louisiana caused 59 deaths, of which 54 were in the town of Warren, Ark., and the blizzard in the mountain states exacted a toll of about 25 lives.

Yale University To Publish Works Of James Boswell

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 2.—(INS)—Yale University set itself a large-scale literary project today—the publication of from 40 to 50 hitherto unknown volumes by a writer who died 150 years ago.

The books, in advance of their publication, are already classics. For the writer is James Boswell, whose "Life of Samuel Johnson," is acknowledged the greatest of all biographies.

Boswell, who died in 1795, left behind vast stores of manuscripts in old trunks. They were ferreted out by Lt. Col. Ralph H. Isham of New York in a 25-year search which resulted in what Columbia University Professor Joseph Wood Krutch calls "perhaps the greatest literary find ever made."

Mother Dies Of Polio After Baby Is Born Monday

COVINGTON, Ky., Aug. 2.—(INS)—An anxious watch was kept today over the crib of a three-day-old baby whose mother died of polio in the iron lung in which the infant was born.

The mother was 24-year-old Mrs. Robert G. Davis, of Highland Heights, Ky. She died yesterday at St. Elizabeth's hospital in Covington.

The woman was reported in satisfactory condition the first day after her daughter was born while she was encased in an iron lung.

Doctors said she failed yesterday and died during the day.

They said it would be several days before it could be determined whether her baby escaped infection from the crippling disease.

The woman's death brought fatalities from polio to the same family twice within one week. Her young niece, Darlene Hunt of Dayton, Ky., died of the disease last week.

State Police Are Patrolling Area At Vestaburg

VESTABURG, Pa., Aug. 2.—(INS)—State police patrolled an area around the Vesta mine No. 5 today to prevent any violence or damage to lumber trucks as the Tri-State Lumbermen's strike entered its 51st day.

Three trucks were burned, three pushed over a 50-foot embankment and ten others damaged by stoning yesterday when drivers pulled up to the mine entrance to unload timber.

The Vesta No. 5 in Vestaburg, a Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation "captive" mine, has been picketed by members of the United Construction Workers who cut timber for mine roof supports.

The UCW is striking in protest against a wage cut.

LETTERWRITING

"Please give me some general information on letterwriting. I am fifteen years old, in high school and am dissatisfied with my letters—their appearance, etc."

Answer: Letterwriting—that is excellent letterwriting—is a congenial gift. There are those whose flow of words, whose descriptive powers, whose attractive penmanship make their letters a delight to receive. Unfortunately, others are not so gifted and their letters must require more effort, greater patience and more care in their preparation. Here are a few of the fundamental rules of correspondence that should be studied before putting any words on paper:

Write neatly and legibly. If it is difficult for you to write in a straight line, use the lined guide that comes with stationery. Keep an even margin at each side. This may seem silly but there is nothing more unattractive than writing that goes up and down hill in wild disorder. Never put down a word of whose spelling you are not sure. With the help of a dictionary be definitely sure of its spelling and meaning, without the possibility of error, before writing even its first syllable.

Your writing paper should never be ruled or scented or of bizarre shape. The plainer it is the better. White, pale blue, buff and a pale gray are in good taste for a woman. Express yourself simply, in your best English, avoiding flowery, slangy or pretentious words. Remember that your letters give an index to your type of mind—your general sense of order or disorder. So take care and time and write cautiously.

Question: When I send out my wedding invitations, should I or should I not include the husband and wife? Should I? Should I, in such a case, address my invitation to "Mrs. only?"

Answer: Send your invitations to Mr. and Mrs., whether you know both husband and wife or not.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

It Feels Good

Billy kicks up the warm dust with bare feet. Mary Anne picks a handful of alfalfa and runs the cool leafy stems through her fingers. Johnny and Susan, Deborah and Jack find all sorts of sensations in the simple things about them. The smell of honeysuckle, the "squashy" feel of a mud puddle, the rowdy hum of insects—all these are a part of the summer life of happy youngsters. Even in the city, there are sensory experiences that bring simple joys to children.

Sometimes we parents, forgetting our own childhood, become a little impatient with such activities. We tell Billy to stop kicking up dust, scold Mary Anne for getting her hands stained and in other ways step in and spoil the youngsters' fun. We can't see any value in these simple things. It's all just a nuisance.

Such experiences are a real part of growing boys' and girls' learning. The simple pleasures give a tang to the everyday living that's worthwhile. With all the "duty" things there are to do, we should not begrudge our children or ourselves the satisfactions of these earthly experiences.

Brown Discusses Britain's Plight

Attorney Speaks Before Meeting Of Rotarians At The Castleton On Monday

Britain's economic plight was discussed in a clearcut fashion Monday at noon by Attorney Orville Brown before the noon Rotary lunch in The Castleton hotel.

"No one thing has brought Britain to her present condition, and no one thing will bring about her recovery," said Mr. Brown. "It is a combination of events mainly caused by wars since 1914."

"At the present time she is in a precarious shortage due to a shortage of gold reserve, or dollar scarcity. The United States has aided immensely through grants to the empire but there is yet need for aid if the empire is to survive.

"The recent restriction upon imports upon American made goods and the request to the overseas units of the Commonwealth came about because of the need of dollars coming in through exports. This is only a temporary measure and with a little more aid I am convinced Britain will come through this crisis, as she has come through others."

Steel pipes and tubes now are made in sizes ranging from hypodermic needles to pipes 150 inches or more in diameter.

FORTY ET EIGHT TO MEET TONIGHT

An evening of entertainment is planned, along with instructions for the coming convention in Pittsburgh, on August 10, 11, 12.

Quiet Night For Police Of City

Police court was a quiet spot over last night.

Aside from a couple of burghers who consumed a trifle too much throat oil, the force had little to do and the blotter this morning was practically blank.

One report was received from Beaver Falls. An unknown bandit, armed, held up a grill in Morado and escaped with about $100 in cash.

Apparently he was a victim of schizophrenia, or split personality. He explained to the bartender and customers that in Pittsburgh he was known as a "nice fellow". He explained he didn't know just why he did those things.

His animal nature seemed to prevail however and after cleaning out the till ordered four customers to walk out with him. Being armed he had the advantage and the customers obeyed.

After walking the four about two miles he let them go.

Picketing Ends At New Penn Hotel

Hearing Wednesday Morning To Determine If Injunction Is Made Permanent

Picketing of the New Penn hotel ceased at 4:30 Monday afternoon, four hours after Judge John G. Lamoree had issued a temporary injunction restraining it.

Sometime before 4:30 in the afternoon Troy C. Burns, state labor mediator, passed the New Penn and saw the pickets. He asked if an injunction had been issued and was told that it had been.

It is said that Mr. Burns then advised Mike Sacco, president of Local 785, Hotel Employees and Bartenders Union, that a violation of a court order could be a serious thing.

Sacco then ordered his pickets from in front of the hotel.

At about the same time a petition had been prepared for presentation to the court setting out that the pickets were in contempt of court.

When the pickets left the petition was not filed.

A hearing will be held Wednesday morning before Judge Lamoree to decide whether or not the temporary injunction will be made permanent.

No strike exists at the New Penn hotel. All employees are working, and the picketing was done by either employees of other hotels or pickets imported from other cities.

INSPECTORS GET BOOST
HARRISBURG, Aug. 2.—(INS)—Most of the states fifty-three mine inspectors today were in line for a $1200 annual pay boost authorized by the 1949 general assembly.

The state justice department ruled in favor of the inspectors' today in the latest of a long line of formal opinions on salary boosts granted by lawmakers. The increase hikes inspectors pay to $8,000 annually.

In a ruling prepared for Auditor General Weldon B. Heyburn the department said all anthracite inspectors are eligible for the increase as are all bituminous inspectors who have served more than eight years.

Sister From England Visiting This City

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boughton Plan Open House For Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hunt, Oxford

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hunt, of Oxford, England, have arrived here for a few weeks visit, with the latter brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boughton, of 923 Winslow avenue.

Owing to difficulty in securing ocean passage on the larger steamship liners, the Hunts came on the Canadian Steamship liner, and landed in St. John's, Newfoundland, stayed there a couple of days, where they did some sightseeing, then on by ship to Halifax, and then on to Boston, Mass., by ship, from where they came here by train.

Mr. Boughton and his sister have not seen each other for 36 years. Mr. Hunt is a schoolmaster or principal, in Oxford.

Owing to the shortness of the visit, Mr. and Mrs. Boughton will have open house, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, on Thursday afternoon and evening.

Monday, the Hunts, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Boughton and son Harold, returned from a week-end visit to Niagara Falls, N. Y., also visited Mr. and Mrs. Boughton's son, Rev. Stanley Boughton and family, of Tonawanda, N. Y., and worshipped in his church, First Presbyterian, on Sunday morning.

It doesn't seem possible that Fran Rogel, State's fullback, can miss establishing a modern Lion record for ground gaining. He galloped 649 yards in ten games, including the Cotton Bowl thriller with Southern Methodist, during the '47 campaign and added 602 yards in nine contests last season.

Uber Is Candidate For City Council

Announces Candidacy For Democratic Nomination At September Primary

CLAIR M. UBER

I was born and raised in Butler County, graduated from high school and attended college in Slippery Rock, completed my schooling in Chicago and graduated an Electrical Engineer.

I have been a resident of New Castle for over 25 years and a property owner for the past 20 years. For the past 24 years I have been employed on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad as a trainman being promoted to conductor a number of years ago.

I belong to numerous lodges and fraternal groups in the city and community.

I was also a Democrat Nominee for the office of City Council in 1947.

I have been active in the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. I have served one term as Vice President and now in my second term as President of Local 955.

One of the big issues of this campaign is the present wage tax, which I am opposed to for many reasons, one of which is that the wage earner is taxed on his gross income. Furthermore, the property owner was to gain benefits which he has not received.

There are many other problems to be considered in the running of a city and it should be given careful consideration that the majority of the citizens will benefit and not a selected few, also that the City will advance and not go backward.

Should I be fortunate enough to be elected to this office, I ask the cooperation of the various religious, and civic groups in the growth and improvement of our City and Community.

I wish to thank the C.I.O., A. F. of L., and the B. of R. T. Political Action Committee for their endorsement.

Sincerely yours, CLAIR M. UBER.

PEEPING TOM

The residents of this community have again been annoyed by a "peeping tom."

Constable Ralph Ferrucci was called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Burich in Chewton, one night recently where a man had been standing on the front doorstep of the Burich home. Mr. Burich who was in bed was aroused by his children who had seen the man trying to gain entrance to the house. The oldest son of the family who is 17 was looking out of the window, he said he was about 6 feet tall and wore a checkered shirt, when the lights in the house were turned on the man vanished.

Constable Ferrucci combed the area until morning but could not locate the man.

Prior to this the constable had been called to the home of Mrs. Pearson on the complaint that a man had chased her sixteen-year-old daughter and her two companions. The girls were so badly frightened that they ran into the White home and locked the door. Dogs frightened the man away. The girl's description of the man was the same as the Burich boys.

Channel Swimmers Plans Curtailed By Churning Sea

DOVER, Eng., Aug. 2.—(INS)—A southerly gale pounded the Dover beach today, churning up the sea and curtailing training plans of Shirley May France and other prospective channel swimmers.

The channel's stormiest night of the year saw big seas sweep the beaches and famed white cliffs, while torrential rains descended on the sea-coast town.

Besides Shirley May, the 16-year-old Somerset, Mass., school girl, three other swimmers are currently at Dover for training. They are Dutch housewife Mrs. Will Van Rysel, who tried once and failed; Dutch student Dick Schermer; and British student Philip Mickman.

The rough weather made it unlikely that any of them will be able to attempt the crossing for several days at least.

Governor Dewey Says Depression Can Be Prevented

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 2.—(INS)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York said Monday he is confident depression can be prevented, and "there is still time to repair the mistakes which a short-sighted national economic policy has made."

In a speech prepared for delivery at the annual convention of the State Federation of Labor, the governor said:

"I know that some of you come here from industries where unemployment is once again becoming a threatening problem. I have been asked many times within the last six months, both at home and abroad, whether in my opinion America is headed back into a depression such as we experienced in the 'thirties."

"My answer has been that a depression can be prevented; that there is still time to repair the mistakes which a short-sighted national economic policy has made."

Ralph Audino Is Council Candidate

Announces Candidacy For City Council At Democratic Primary In September

RALPH AUDINO

I wish to announce that I shall be a candidate for the office of City Council in the coming Primary Election, Tuesday, September 13th, 1949, on the Democratic ticket.

I was born in New Castle July 6th, 1906, and have lived here my entire lifetime. I am married and have two children. I live and own property at 512 Centennial St., in the 2nd ward of this city.

I have been employed by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Co., this city, for the past 26 years, and have had office experience all of this time.

I am now and have been President of the New Castle Trades and Labor Assembly (A. F. of L.) for the past ten years. I am 2nd Vice President of the Greater New Castle Association. I am a Board member of the Community Chest, Board member of the Boy Scouts of America. I have been a Board member of the American Red Cross, Board member of the Cancer Society. During the last world war I was County Chairman for the Labor Division of all eight War Bond Drives. I was a Panel Member of the War Labor Board, and was a Member of the War Manpower Commission. I have served and assisted on all Civic movements that took place in the City and County for the past ten years, because I believe in New Castle and Lawrence County, and I am interested in its welfare and progress.

I have been and still am against the Personal 1% Wage Tax, and have so expressed myself before City Council on several occasions. However, I know that operating costs have increased and more money is needed, and with that thought in mind I proposed to City Council that before adopting this unfair tax, that a cross section of representative citizens be called in and discuss the need for additional income. Council ignored this recommendation.

I then proposed that before any action be taken on the Wage Tax, by City Council that a referendum vote be taken, and let the Citizens decide, this was also ignored.

Do you agree that the time has come to elect persons to City Council that will represent all the people and not a selected few?

City Council has always been made up with Professional, Business and Retired Citizens, why cannot Labor have representation on Council. I believe that with Labor representation on Council it would be most helpful to plan its future programs.

I have been endorsed by the Lawrence County Labor Political Committee, consisting of Labor Unions of the A. F. of L., C. I. O., Independent and Railroad Brotherhoods.

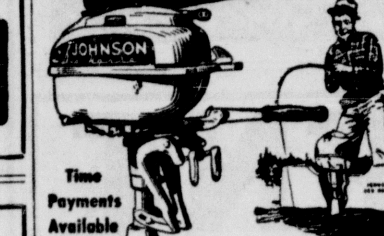

Your vote and influence will be most greatly appreciated.

RALPH AUDINO.

CHECK DRY SAMPLE

Different paint colors dry in different ways. Some dry lighter, some darker than the way they seem in the paint can. Experts suggest brushing out a large sample and letting it dry thoroughly. It's a good idea to study the dry sample under both natural and artificial light before deciding if it's exactly the shade you desire.

Peace-Time Draft Will Not Likely Be Reimposed In U.S.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—Defense Secretary Johnson told a youth conference Monday that it will probably be unnecessary to reimpose the peace-time draft.

Johnson spoke briefly to 96 student delegates attending the American Legion's annual "Boy's Forum of National Government" in Washington.

In response to a question, Johnson said that "events of the last few months" indicate that voluntary enlistments will fill defense requirements. He said this fact is helping to deter "the would-be aggressor."

The youths chose a "little cabinet" including a "boy secretary of defense"—Charles S. Brown Jr., 17, of War, W. Va.—to run the Pentagon during their three hour visit.

Army Profits From Employment Decline

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 2.—(INS)—The army may profit from the decline in the number of jobs available.

The Pittsburgh recruiting office added its figures and found that 100 young men applied for enlistment Thursday—its biggest day since World War II ended.

Capt. Mark R. Byrne, head of the processing section, said 25 enlistments in one day are normal. He said many of the youths, most of whom signed up for three years, said they couldn't find jobs.

Denver, Colo., is the financial and commercial center of the Rocky mountain area.

Bob Hope Hurt In Movie Stunt

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 2.—(INS)—Comedian Bob Hope was under treatment today at the Hollywood Presbyterian hospital for injuries suffered in a fall from a "prop" horse during the filming of a comedy scene.

The fall of about five feet knocked the comedian unconscious and wrenched his back. Physicians said he probably would be in the hospital for two days.

The accident occurred late yesterday during a scene with Lucille Ball in "Where Men Are Men." Hope was riding in a saddle mounted on a barrel being rocked by Miss Ball.

Ropes supporting the contraption were released somehow, and Hope fell backward.

Formerly in Great Britain certain qualifications of rank of property were required of those who killed game.

Speaker Rayburn Declares Congress Still In Session

Nation Still Officially At War He Announces To Republican Objectors

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—Republican Leader Halleck of Indiana formally objected in the house Monday that congress was not legally in session, but immediately was overruled by Speaker Rayburn (D) Tex.

Halleck contended congress cannot legally hold further sessions without affirmative action. He said under the law it was required to adjourn sine die on July 31 unless the nation was at war or the president declared a national emergency.

Rayburn overruled his objection and pointed to the speaker's ruling of last week that the nation was still officially at war.

Rep. Church (R) Ill., then demanded that President Truman call congress into special session before the day was out.

Earlier Senate Democratic Leader Lucas said after a conference with President Truman that congress will remain in session for "at least another month."

The Illinois senator told reporters that he had assured Mr. Truman that congress would not adjourn "until we get the job done."

Quickest Way to Improve a Highway!

WHEN YOU TAKE your first ride at the wheel of a 1949 Cadillac, please take it over the road you'd like most to see improved—the one where the bumps and curves and depressions annoy you the most.

And see how magically they either disappear, or become so minimized that you are scarcely aware of their existence.

Yes, the quickest way to improve a highway is to ride it in a 1949 Cadillac!

You really have to experience Cadillac comfort before you can appreciate what it's like.

First of all, there's the wonderful way in which the car holds the road. As one driver so aptly expressed it—"The car goes where you aim it—and the rear end follows the front!"

Then there's the steady, soft, even ride—so level and easy that it actually induces relaxation.

And, of course, there's the marvelous certainty of control, which gives such supreme confidence to both driver and passengers. The powerful, eager engine responds instantly to the accelerator; steering is positive and easy; brakes are velvet-soft to the touch and instantaneous in action.

Truly, a ride in a Cadillac is a lesson in relaxation.

Have you thought of a road you'd like to see improved? Is so, drop in some day—and we'll take you over it in a 1949 Cadillac.

OTHER EVENTS
IN COURT HOUSE

Candidates for party nomi-

luck of their friends. In the case of such places as supervisors, burgesses and many others the candidates had the election board members draw their names.

Kelley pool balls were used for the draw. For those uninitiated in the secrets of Kelley pool, each player shoots in the turn indicated by the number of small balls drawn from a cup.

Number one was low, fifteen was high. This was a case where a high score was low.

SOME GROOMING HINTS FOR WARM WEATHER

To keep cool and immaculate looking when the temperature and humidity are high, women need to practice good grooming habits regularly. A daily shower or bath is important to personal neatness.
Lukewarm water in the shower or bath is more refreshing than cold water. Many women find that shampoos as often as semi-weekly help keep their hair at its best.
Vigorous and steady brushing daily will bring out the luster in the hair.

Care of the feet is as important as care of the hands. The color of nail polish used on toenails should be the same as that used on fingernails.

Make-up should be removed from the face several times during each day. Use powder not only on hot humid days and never use a soiled powder puff.

Clothes for hot weather wear should be selected for their wash-ability as well as for other factors.
Clean undergarments should accompany a fresh clean dress every day. Choose cool looking blues and greens for the "cool as a cucumber look." Confidence radiates from the well groomed look.

Nurses Needed To Help Polio Victims

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—
The American Red Cross has issued an emergency call for qualified professional nurses willing to serve in infantile paralysis epidemics in several parts of the country.

Red Cross officials said the organization is "hard pressed" to answer requests for emergency-duty nurses to fill needs in polio-plagued communities where all available nurses are in service.

The first carrier plane landing was made in 1922.

Moore Candidate
For City Controller

Seeks Renomination For Office
At Republican Primaries
In September

WM. A. "DINTY" MOORE

To the Voters of New Castle:

Four years ago you elected me to serve as city controller. Previously, I had served as controller having been appointed by the mayor and council to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. Sidney L.
Lockley, who had resigned in order to enlist in the United States Navy.

For the benefit of those who do not know me, I have been a resident of New Castle for the past 47 years; am married and own my own home located at 1711 Delaware avenue.

The law pertaining to third class cities specifically states that the city controller shall be a competent accountant. Prior to accepting the responsibilities of the office, I had spent over five years as an accountant with the Carnegie-Illinois
Steel Co. and the Mellon Stewart
Construction company.

The city controller might well be called the city auditor as that is primarily his duty, since he has no voice in formulating the laws or policies of the city.

The law further states that the city controller shall examine, audit and settle all accounts whatsoever, in which the city is concerned either as debtor or creditor and shall countersign all warrants for the payment of moneys out of the city treasury, when satisfied of the legality of such payment. He must also make an annual audit and present a written report of his findings to the mayor and council on or before the first day of March,
each year.

For the past five years I have performed the above mentioned duties and in addition, have made an annual audit of the accounts of the school district, the Athletic Council, the school cafeteria, the public library board, the police pension fund, the firemen's pension fund, the employees pension fund and the recreation board.

These services have been performed without the aid of a deputy or clerk although I find that in a number of cities in Pennsylvania, the controller does have a deputy,
and should you be interested in any of these accounts, I will be glad to show you my records, which are complete and filed in such a manner as to be easily accessible.

If after fair consideration, you feel that I have conducted the office in a commendable manner, I will be grateful for your support.
Respectfully submitted,
WM. A. "DINTY" MOORE

HEARTS AND FLOWERS

There are too many funerals of children who die from heart trouble.

Rheumatic fever is a killer. It is a disease which has been known for ages.

Doctors have been studying about it and worrying about it for years but the problem has not been solved.

For some unknown reason it tends to damage the heart. Sometimes the victim lives to be old but with considerably crippling.

A crippled leg or a crooked back are very evident and usually elicit sympathy.

A crippled heart is far worse.

Cost Government
Over 69 Million To Support Egg Prices

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—
The Agriculture department reported today that the government has spent 46 cents for each citizen so far this year to support egg prices.

Officials said purchases of dried eggs from processors has cost 69 million, 663 thousand dollars since last January 1.

The cost of more than eight million dollars worth of eggs was recovered by the Agriculture department through sales to the Economic Cooperation Administration for export to Great Britain.

But since the taxpayer also pays the bill for ECA, the per capita cost of the egg price support program has not been reduced one cent.

English Vacation

LONDON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—A pretty, young New York girl wrote plaintively to the London Daily Mail today to say she has been disillusioned in Englishmen.

Marie Louise Ward, who wrote

Britons to be the most romantic gland for a two weeks vacation.

Now her two weeks are up and she is on her way home with noth-

Johnstown Tops All-Stars 11-10; Indies And Universals Play Tonight

Crowd Of 6,125 See Wild And Woolly Game

(Special To The News)
JOHNSTOWN, Aug. 2.—After tying the score at 10-10 with seven runs in the last of the ninth, the Johnstown Johnnies punched across a run in the 11th to defeat the Middle Atlantic League All-Stars, 11-10 here last night. A paid crowd of 6,125 was on hand for the three-hour 25-minute game.

In as wild a rally as this city has seen in years, the Johnnies counted seven times in the last of the ninth to tie the score at 10-10. Johnny Higgins of Uniontown started the frame, but three walks, two errors and a hit with only one out got rid of him in a hurry. Then Walter (Boom-Boom) Beck, who joined the All-Star squad as a coach, went in to pitch. He retired the first batter, but Restic hit a broken bat single into left for two runs. Billy Palumbo singled to center and when Johnny Moore fumbled the ball, Restic sped home with the tying run.

Three In First Inning

The All-Stars took advantage of Dale Steen's wobbly start to score three times in the first frame. Both Bob Huddleston and Spider Wilhelm walked and Chuck Harig singled Huddleston home. Bob Betz forced Wilhelm at third and Joe Lonnett fanned, but Roy Cabanaw doubled to score Harig and Ed Kestler singled off Norm Galinkin's glove to plate Betz.

Successive singles by Billy Palumbo, Leo Blandino and Bob Umstead off Johnny Kucab gave the Johnnies one point in the bottom of the same round. But the rally fizzed out when Galinkin and Joe Beran fanned and Roy Nichols popped up.

The Johnnies passed up an excellent scoring chance against Erie's Bob Sprosser in the fifth.

RESULTS MONDAY

Johnstown 11, All-Stars 10 (11 innings).

GAMES TONIGHT

New Castle at Erie.
Johnstown at Oil City.
Youngstown at Vandergrift.
Butler at Uniontown.

Walks to Palumbo and Blandino and Umstead's being hit by a pitched ball filled out the bases, but Galinkin was called out on strikes and Nichols grounded into a fast double play.

Sprosser, however, did not escape so easily in the sixth. With two out, Ray Moring walked and Steen lashed a terrific inside-the-park homer over rightfielder Bill Hudasek's head. That blow tied the score, but not for long as Youngstown's Spider Wilhelm blasted a bases-empty swat over the leftfield screen in the top of the seventh.

Maier Drives In Run

The All-Stars got rid of Steen in the eighth when they scored three times to run the score to 7-3. Roy Cabanaw opened with a triple and when Vic Buranskas walked, Joe Restic replaced Steen. Reed Maier flied out, with Cabanaw scoring after the catch, and Art Dunham walked. Huddleston forced Dunham, but Wilhelm walked and Johnny Moore poked a double into the leftfield corner for two runs.

Singles by Bob Odenheimer, Cabanaw, Buranskas and Dunham, coupled with a wild throw to third by Umstead, gave the All-Stars three more in the ninth. Joe Restic, a pitcher on lend-lease from Vandergrift, was the winning pitcher. He also started the game winning drive in the 11th with a line double to center and scored on Leon Blandino's base knock to left.

Beck Is Loser

Walter Beck, the seventh All-Star pitcher, was the loser. Dale Steen, starting Johnstown pitcher, blasted a two-run homer in the sixth and Charles Wilhelm, shortstop from Youngstown, hit a circuit blow in the seventh.

The All-Stars showed a 14-12 (Continued on Next Page)

Ex-Notre Dame Gridder Seeking $20,000 Damages

William J. 'Bucky' Connors Comends He Was Injured In All-Star Game In 1948

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—(INS)—Ex-Notre Dame gridder William (Bucky) O'Connor has filed suit against the Chicago Tribune, Charities, Inc., and Tribune Sports Editor Arch Ward for $20,000 damages for an injury allegedly suffered while he played with the 1948 College All-Stars.

O'Connor claimed in his action, filed in Chicago yesterday, that he suffered a chest injury while practicing with the All-Star squad last Aug. 14.

Unable To Play

The injury was aggravated in the All-Star game with the Chicago Cardinals, the suit added, and the Tulsa, Okla., footballer was unable to play for an entire year with the pro Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League.

Ward issued a statement which said in part:

"Mr. O'Connor was insured against any loss of salary due to injuries in the All-Star game or preparatory workouts by Lloyd's of London. Accordingly, the claim will be referred to the insurance company. I am surprised at O'Connor's action, because I had understood he had played in two or three games for the Los Angeles Rams subsequent to his participation in the 1948 All-Star game."

John Chickernoe, assistant Pittsfield coach, and the Pittsburgh Steelers' Johnny Clement were teammates in the service, at Maxwell Field in 1944.

Dodgers Whitewash Bucs, Pick Up Game, Cards Lose

By JOHN BARRINGTON
(International News Service Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—The Brooklyn Dodgers are surging back just as the Cardinals sneer, they never would, and the St. Louis Cardinals' National league lead looks about as permanent as a two-dollar permanent wave.

Another full game melted off the Cardinals lead last night, the Dodgers climbing to within one-half game as Ralph Branca shut out Pittsburgh, 9 to 0, while the Cards lost to Boston, 8 to 1.

The St. Louis decline, started by the Dodgers when they beat Eddie Dyer and company Sunday, was helped along last night by the Braves.

The Beantowners pounded Harry Breechen and two successors for 11 hits, while Warren Spahn pitched eight-hit ball for his 13th victory. Only a home run by Enos Slaughter averted a shutout.

Included in the Boston attack were homers by Ed Sauer and Bob Elliott.

Kiner Gets Three

Branca gave up only four hits, with Ralph Kiner getting three of them—double and two singles. It was Branca's 12th win.

House Of David Here Wednesday

Bewhiskered Ball Players Will Clash With Universal Pottery At Flaherty Field

House of David's semi-pro baseball team, which plays the Universal Pottery at Flaherty field Wednesday night, at 8:15 p. m., presents a well rounded and colorful lineup.

Old veterans of the game make up a large part of the House of David club. Many of them have spent years playing in the minor leagues before signing up with the whiskered outfit.

John Scully, veteran pitcher, is among the minor league players on the squad. He played with the bearded boys in 1938 and then played in organized baseball in United States and Canada until 1946 when he returned to his first love.

Maren Feared Batter

Bob Maren, outfielder and pitcher, is a fugitive from the St. Louis Cardinal farm chain.

He was used mostly as a pitcher in his minor league days, but is now one of the most feared batters in semi-pro baseball.

Other old-timers on the squad include Tim Henville, Jim Greneman and Mike Janesko. Janesko, veteran pitcher, has been with the club since 1928, with the exception of the war years.

Yarlett's Hurls One-Hit Game

Young Chuck Yarlett took the mound for Pulaski last night and hurled a near no-hitter in the North County league, as he whitewashed the New Bedford team 16 to 0 and fanned 11 batters in the seven inning game.

McKenzie Explains About Grid Tickets

Cards have been sent to all of last season's New Castle High ticket holders whose names and addresses are on file. Last season we asked that persons whose tickets were not listed in their own names send in their stubs with their names and addresses. Anyone who had a season ticket last year and has not received a card should immediately send in his stubs with his name and address in order to be put on the list, or should again purchase through the same person who bought them last year.

All seats not claimed by former patrons will be placed on sale at the North Street School beginning August 29.

Lesnevich-Charles Undergo Examination

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—(INS)—Both Ezzard Charles and Gus Lesnevich, who fight for the former's NBA heavyweight championship at Yankee Stadium Aug. 10, were found in top physical condition at their official medical examination Monday.

Dr. Vincent Nardiello, examining physician for the New York State Athletic Commission, pronounced the two fighters in "excellent shape." Lesnevich weighed 183 pounds, but plans to trim to 180 for the fight. Charles weighed 180, the poundage he hopes to carry against the Cliffsides, N. J., challenger.

GIL STEINKE QUILTS EAGLES

GRAND RAPIDS, Minn., Aug. 2.—(INS)—Veteran halfback Gil Steinke, of the Philadelphia Eagles, revealed today that he has quit pro football because of a cracked vertebrae.

Steinke, who has played five seasons with the Eagles, was hurt several days ago when he tackled another player during a training camp scrimmage. He said he will return to coaching college football.

GRIDDER DIVORCED

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Aug. 2.—(INS)—Vic Sears, tackle for the Philadelphia Eagles, and his wife, Mary Amelia Sears, have been divorced.

Judge E. Arnold Forrest granted a divorce decree in Norristown yesterday. No details of the suit were revealed.

GAME IS CANCELLED

The scheduled St. Marys and Farnone game for Wednesday night in the American Legion league has been cancelled owing to Catholic Day, and will be played at a later date, it was announced by Manager Joe Howley of the Saints.

Harrisburg Hurler Allows Athletics Just One Bingle

Art Wood, Southpaw, Tames Macks
In Exhibition 1 To 0, Pull
Triple Play

HARRISBURG, Aug. 2.—(INS)—The Philadelphia Athletics last night lost a 1-0 exhibition game to Harrisburg of the Interstate league and were able to get only one bingle off the Senators left-handed hurler Art Wood.

Harrisburg's lone run was scored in the 4th inning when rightfielder Hal Cox homered over the right field fence.

In the fifth inning, the Senators staged a triple play to break up the A's major scoring threat of the game played before 6,700 spectators in Island Park.

Pitcher Phil Marchildon went five innings for Connie Mack's American league club and was relieved by Les McCrabb.

The loss ran the A's string of consecutive innings to 36; the club was whitewashed in three big league games played over the weekend.

REINCARNATION OF RUBE WADDELL

CLEVELAND, Aug. 2.—(INS)—Al Boyer, pitcher for the Berea Merchants in the Lorain County Class A league, doesn't believe in overworking his fielders.

The six-foot right-hander hurled all 18 innings of a double-header Sunday at suburban Berea. He struck out all 27 men in the opener and followed by pitching a no-hitter in the night-cap.

Boyer gave up one hit in the first game as his mates topped the Lorain Amvets, 11-0. He struck out 15 and walked only one in the second contest which he won, 1-0, by hitting a home run.

EDEN-HILLERS WIN

The Eden-Hillers baseball team of the North County league defeated the Castlewood team 13 to 3 last night at the Eden-Hillers Field, with J. Book the winning pitcher and Vancouver the loser. Commemo and Retord did heavy hitting for the winners. Wednesday the Eden-Hiller will play a loop game at New Bedford, and Friday will play the No. 5 Mine team at their home field in Edenburg.

WILL PLAY TONIGHT

The Pearson A. C. will play the Shadysides tonight at 6 o'clock at Dean Park field, in a practice game. The game will serve as a warmup for the coming softball loop title playoffs.

Wake Forrest's 1949 football squad will be the first unit of the college ever to take to the air. The Deacons will make at least two flights this fall—to Dallas, Texas, and to Boston, Mass., during the last two week-ends in September.

When fall practice opens at Wake Forest on September First Coach Douglas Clyde (Peahead) Walker will be starting his 13th consecutive season as head coach of the Deacons. Walker came here from Eton College in the fall of 1937.

Warren Druetzler, Michigan State sophomore distance ace, is spending his summer vacation as a member of the National AAU track and field team on tour through several European countries.

Hornets To Detect Radioactive Leaks

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(INS)—Scientists at the Brookhaven, Long Island, atomic laboratory will use hornets as flying geiger counters to detect leaks of radioactive substances unrecorded by mere machines.

The atomic energy commission said today that for some reason known only to a hornet the nasty-tempered insects do not on a diet of barium.

Radioactive barium is a product of atom-splitting.

The scientists—heaven help them—will place hornets at key points near Brookhaven to see whether, by accumulating barium, they will uncover possible leaks long before they could be detected by instruments alone.

Flagpole Sitters Brought Together By Telephone Talk

Wish Each Other Luck In Adventures, Hers For A Home And His First Place

REVERE, Mass., Aug. 2.—(INS)—Said the gentleman on the flag pole in Cleveland, O., to the lady on the flag pole in Revere: "I hope your husband finds a house for you."

Replied she: "Thanks, and I'll be rooting for the Cleveland Indians."

And that wound up a more or less epic telephone conversation Monday between the nation's No. 1 and No. 2 flag pole sitters.

The link between the two was arranged by Boston radio station WCOP with Ron Cochran, news editor, the instigator.

The gentleman in Cleveland is

Charles Lupica, who climbed his pole 63 days ago and said he'd stay there until the Cleveland Indians, 1948 world champions of baseball, got into first place in the American league where he figures the champion belongs (they're in second place right now).

The lady in Revere is Mrs. Jean Ellis, 24, easy to look at housewife, who went up to her perch 19 days ago to protest the lack of adequate housing for herself, her husband and daughter Sharon, 4.

What do flag pole sitters talk about? Well, Charlie made a date with Mrs. Ellis. He said: "I want to meet you some day when I get off this thing here. Don't forget we have a date. You leave your husband home and I'll leave my wife home."

Mrs. Ellis replied, "Okay, that's fine."

Then Charlie got cold feet.

He added: "Aw, you take your husband along if you want to."

Both agreed it was hard to sleep on poles in spite of air-filled rubber mattresses. And both agreed it was tough taking sponge baths out of a bucket. But most of their conversation was quite ordinary. They talked about the weather.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 2.—(INS)—The United States Secret Service warned that a new type of counterfeit $10 bill is circulating in the Pittsburgh district.

John L. Kettl, who is in charge of the Pittsburgh office of the Secret Service, said the phony bills are copied from New York Federal Reserve notes and are of good workmanship except for a light appearance on the face.
